Destroying the Earth for wild "green" endeavors is a high-profit move for Gates and his ilk

Most of the trees slated for removal are in California, where Kodama plans to axe them to death and bury them under the soil in order to prevent their carbon from "spewing" back into the atmosphere.

Carbon is the basis of all life on Earth, of course, but Gates and other globalist-industrialist carbon greenies are anti-tree because trees release oxygen and take in carbon dioxide (CO2) every time they breathe.

Trees are a perfect "carbon capture" feature of nature, it turns out, but Gates cannot profit from them if they are allowed to remain standing. Thus, he is laser-focused right now on chopping down as many trees as he can get away with to get those carbon credit profits flowing into his bank account.

"Blue-haired communist trannies will volunteer for the destruction of the forests in order to put an end to white supremacy and to save the planet," one commenter joked about this bizarre new plan.

"Douglas fir is the main reason for white racism in society today. No justice, no peace! They will not stop until every racist stream is destroyed and every evil forest is leveled. Fight racism now! Kill the salmon!"

Another joked that it is already too late because leftist-arsonists have burned down the forests with "wildfires" caused by "global warming."

"What Bill Gates and the WEF (World Economic Forum) cronies truly want is extermination of ALL life on this planet," commented another.

"Hide the sun, bury the trees, abort more babies, push transgenderism so that more young kids sterilize themselves because they're misled and confused – these people bank on our ignorance of science and truth."

These people are demonically insane. If carbon is a problem, then LENR, radiofrequency catalysis of and splitting of water, and fifty other suppressed and ignored solutions are the answer. They just want to murder everyone.
